Edinburgh University Musical Medics

Charity Spring Concert

In Aid of

Music in Hospitals, Scotland

Saturday 29th March 2014, 7:30pm

Reid Concert Hall, Edinburgh

Welcome

I would like to welcome you all to the Edinburgh University Musical Medics Spring concert. We are a society who unite a passion for music with a deep belief in helping local medical charities and giving back to the community. These values are integral to our music making and we are honoured to be able to share these with you tonight.

Tonight will be our last performance with our orchestra conductor Stuart Murray who has been with us for the last three years. We have very much enjoyed working with him and I hope tonight we can do him proud.

Of course, we are here first and foremost to fundraise for the charity Music in Hospitals Scotland who bring live music to people in care. We welcome Sarah Bax who has kindly come along to talk about this worthy cause.

Afterwards we will be putting on some refreshments at 56 North and hope you can join us.

Thank you for your generosity and we hope you enjoy the concert.
