Edinburgh University Musical Medics

Charity Christmas Concert

In Aid of It's Good 2 Give

Saturday 30th November 2013, 7:30pm

Reid Concert Hall, Edinburgh

We would like to thank our guest players* for supporting us tonight.

Welcome

I would like to welcome you all to the Edinburgh University Musical Medics Christmas concert. We are a society who unite a passion for music with a deep belief in helping local medical charities and giving back to the community. These values are integral to our music making and we are honoured to be able to share these with you tonight.

This year we have a fantastic new committee, who have strived to raise awareness of the society's work. In September we welcomed back friendly faces but also saw the arrival of many new talents, and I would like to wish them the best of luck in their first concert with EUMM.

Despite the festive fun, we are here first and foremost to fundraise for the local children's cancer charity, 'It's Good 2 Give' who are currently aiming to raise £1million to build a retreat sanctuary for young cancer patients and their families. We welcome Lynne McNicoll who has kindly come along to talk about this worthy cause.

Afterwards we would like to invite you to welcome in the Christmas season with us with some festive refreshments. Donations from these will go to the society as without your support what we do would simply not be possible.

Thank you for your generosity and we hope you enjoy the concert.

Rachel
